SECTION –B

1. Activities reflecting the goals and objectives of the institution:

- In order to develop the raw young talent in the region into visionary and responsible members of the society we are committed to provide excellent education for women that will empower them intellectually, socially and artistically, hence transforming them into true leaders and torch bearers for the next generation.
- Education is not worth providing, if it cannot benefit all. Thus providing quality education to women everywhere, especially those that are economically underprivileged and come from rural areas is always our top priority. We provide financial assistance to those coming from backward classes.
- “Total Education” is our motto, which means we create a right balance between class time, playground and labs to help overall growth of our students. To achieve this goal, we provide computer and internet training to both our students and staff members that can assist them in self study and home-work completion. We also host a wide array of curricular and co-curricular activities that help our students discover themselves further, hence helping us shape-up our goal of total education.
