Cooking competition- Department of Food and Nutrition organized a cooking competition for “International Millets Year,” where students prepared different nutritious recipes from millet to promote millet in the diet. Judgment of this competition was done by Prof. Dr. I. G. Khatwani and Prof. T. M. Tembhare.

Packed Lunch (Tiffin) Prepared by Millets :

The college students took a step to increase their consumption of millet. On 22nd August 2023 (Tuesday), they brought various dishes made of cereals (millets) in their tiffin and committed to consuming more millets in the future.

Assignments presented by students

Assignments are given to the students to enhance their writing skills. Assignments are intended to allow students to practice and use what they have learned in their studies. Assignments stimulate students to take the privilege of their knowledge. They need students to work independently, conduct investigations, examine different origins of knowledge, and invent self-discipline. These skills are necessary for lifelong wisdom and personal development

○ Research Paper

Geographical research is significant as it provides a basis for explaining the regional variations and accounts for spatial planning that is necessary to strengthen the nation in terms of its strategic, demographic, social, economic growth and development. As well as Fieldwork is an essential ingredient of geography because it provides a 'real-world' opportunity for students to develop and extend their geographical thinking; it adds value to classroom experiences

Experimental Learning

Experimental or practical learning is a teaching method in which students acquire knowledge and skills by operating comprehensively to investigate and respond to an authentic, engaging, and complex question, problem, or challenge. Practical learning is an excellent tool because it challenges students to work together and think in new ways. It is an ideal technique for delivering numerous options for students with various learning choices.

Date: 11th March 2023
Time: 11:30 AM
Class: B.Sc. (Home Science) Sem IV

Institution Visited: Home for Senior Citizens

Location: Kanhartoli, Gondia

Type of Institution: Private & Rural

Established: 2003

Proprietor: Mrs. Anjali Dhonge

Administrator: Mangesh Rajbhake

Number of Residents: 17 (8 Female & 9 Male)

Age Group of Residents: 60-72 years

Infrastructure: 6 rooms, Kitchen, and Entertainment Hall

Visit Summary:

On 11th March 2023, the students of B.Sc. (Home Science) Semester IV from the Department of Human Development at S.S. Girls' College, Gondia, visited the Home for Senior Citizens located in Kanhartoli, Gondia. A total of 22 students participated in this visit, accompanied by faculty members.

The home, established in 2003, provides a safe and nurturing environment for elderly residents aged between 60 to 72 years. The institution is privately owned and situated in a rural setting, managed by Mrs. Anjali Dhonge and administered by Mr. Mangesh Rajbhake.

During the visit, students had the opportunity to interact with the residents and observe their daily routines. They learned about the challenges faced by elderly individuals and gained insights into the importance of emotional and social support for this age group.

Activities Conducted:

The students actively engaged in various activities aimed at enhancing the well-being of the residents. As part of their contribution, they distributed biscuits to all residents, bringing a moment of joy to the elderly. Additionally, the students donated 30 kilograms of rice to support the institution's food supplies.

The visit not only allowed the students to apply their theoretical knowledge in a real-world setting but also fostered a sense of social responsibility and empathy towards the elderly community. This experience highlighted the importance of care and compassion for senior citizens, promoting intergenerational understanding and respect.

The visit concluded with an expression of gratitude from both the students and the residents, marking the day as a meaningful and memorable experience for all involved.

Total No. of Students Visited: 20

Counsellor: Dr. C. S. Shimankar

Establishment Year: 2019

Objective of the Visit: The objective of this visit was to provide the students of B.Sc. (Home Science), semester VI, with practical exposure to the operations of a professional counselling centre. This experience was intended to complement their theoretical knowledge with hands-on understanding of counselling practices, assessments, and mental health interventions.

Overview of the Counselling Centre: The Government Medical College Counselling Centre in Gondia was established in 2019 with the primary aim of offering mental health services and support to individuals in need. The centre operates in accordance with government regulations and provides a range of services, including psychological assessments, certifications for various special conditions, and counselling services for different mental health issues.

Facilities Available : During the visit, the following facilities were observed:

1. Psychological Tests: The centre is equipped with a variety of psychological tests that comply with government regulations. These tests are used to diagnose and assess individuals with mental health concerns, providing a critical resource for accurate treatment and counselling.

2. Certification Services: The centre issues official certificates for conditions such as mental retardation (MR), learning disabilities, and other special needs. These certifications are essential for individuals to access appropriate services and support systems.

3. Counselling for Marital Conflicts: The centre provides specialized counselling services to address and resolve marital conflicts. This service helps couples navigate relationship difficulties and promotes mental well-being within familial settings.

4. Counselling for Mental Disorders: A broad range of mental health counselling services are offered to address various mental disorders. The counsellor, Dr. C. S. Shimankar, provides professional support to individuals dealing with anxiety, depression, and other psychological challenges.

Interaction with the Counsellor : The visit included an insightful interaction with Dr. C. S. Shimankar, the lead counsellor at the centre. Dr. Shimankar shared her experiences and expertise in handling different types of cases and provided valuable insights into the real-world applications of psychological theories and counselling techniques. She emphasized the importance of a patient-centric approach and the ethical considerations in psychological practice.

Conclusion : The visit to the Government Medical College Counselling Centre, Gondia, was an enriching experience for the students. It not only provided them with a practical understanding of
